

Registration Form

College credit/CEUs option -

15 hours will need to be completed for those working for credits through Northern. Registration forms for credits and CEU forms will be available at the event.

To receive Graduate Credit: A culmination paper of how you have expanded your knowledge of teaching braille and how you will use and apply the strategies and skills you have learned. One to two pages typed double spaced. Reference speakers and materials discussed. Due by October 28, 2016.

Mail to:

Jane Garrison

191 Redwing Dr., Eureka, MT 59917

jgarrison@msdb.mt.gov

406-889-3919

Name (First, Last):

School:

Mailing Address:

Phone:

Email:

Lodging: (circle one) MSDB Cottages or Off-campus

Nights: (circle) Thursday Friday Saturday

Food allergies:

Current status in the braille certification process:

Not signed up: -----

Completed through lesson: -----

Other notes for instructors:

Registration - email or mail by Sept 23 to:

Sharon Woods

7 Spencer Road

Roberts, MT 59070 swoods@msdb.mt.gov

Untangling the Dots October 7-8

The Montana School for the Deaf and the Blind is offering a free Braille in-service.

"Untangling the Dots" has been a key training opportunity for parents, teachers and paraprofessionals across the state by providing specific support in braille instruction.

This training provides support to staff around the state working towards compliance with the state mandate for braille instruction.

Montana School for the Deaf and the Blind
3911 Central Avenue · Great Falls, MT 59405
(406) 771-6000

Earn Graduate Credits
or CEUs

Register Today for
MSDB braille fun and learning

Questions Answered
Connections made

MONTANA SCHOOL for the Deaf & Blind

giving kids the building blocks to independence

Friday - 11.5 hours

8:00 - Welcome - Introductions and Explanation of: schedule, academic credits, and sessions available.

8:30 - 12:30 - Work Session:

Choose from one of the following:

A. Braille Work Session- will focus on completion of braille lessons for all levels. You will need a braille writer and/or laptop if you're a Perky Duck user; as well as your transcriber materials. If you need any equipment, please let us know in advance.

B. Beginning Braille- will focus on ensuring that you are enrolled correctly in the transcriber course. Introduction to braille lessons and support will be provided.

12:30-1:30 - Working lunch -
SPEAKER - Allison O'Day

1:30-5:30 - Braille Work Session

5:30 - 6:30- Dinner break

7:00 - 9:00 - Braille Work Session

Saturday - 4.5 hours

8:00 - Welcome

8:30-12:30 - Braille work session

12:30-1:30 - clean up and goodbyes!

Event Information

Materials - Please bring your laptop - we will download the necessary software. Bring a Braille writer, if you have one. Come dressed comfortably!

Housing - Rooms are available at no cost on the MSDB campus, on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Meals - Breakfast foods are provided in the MSDB rooms for those staying on campus. Friday lunch is provided by MSDB. Dinner is on your own.

Location: Check-in and all sessions will take place in Bitterroot (main parking lot) on the MSDB Campus.

*Hands on work time
Braille Support*

The schedule allows for general discussion and work time with teachers, para-professionals, parents, and others working with blind/vi students

